Bath time!!
Are you okay? Does it hurt...?
No, no... I'm totally fine.
Workshop, rear entrance.
THE AIR GOWL HAS BEEN STASHED AWAY ON THE PORCH.
A week passed after we had returned to the workshop. The surgery didn't seem to cause any complications, and the wounds on the rest of Reszurre's body also healed as nicely as they could, so Anne and Mone agreed to take her to a bath. With Reszurre now conscious, it would be really awkward for me to help her bathe, so they were a great help.
Tell me if it gets too hot! Can't have you faint on us!
...Okay... It feels really nice right now...
dip...
I hope it lets her relax a little bit...
